

Steward Carlisle Accepts Coaching Position at Western Carolina University

Steward Carlisle, a 1989 graduate of Greenbrier East High School, has accepted a graduate assistant coaching position at Western Carolina University in Cullowhee, North Carolina. The Catamounts hold membership in the Southern Conference and NCAA Division I-AA.

Steward Carlisle started in a school-record 32 consecutive games and was a three-time letterman in his Spartan football career. He was twice named First Team All-Coalfield Conference and was awarded the Richard Massey Dedication Award. Steward went on to play football at Hampden-Sydney College, where he earned the J. Stokeley Fulton Award, given to the Hampden-Sydney football player who exemplifies scholarship, leadership, and athletic achievement in 1992. Steward was also named to the VaSID Division II and III All-Virginia Second Team, and a two-time member of the All-ODAC Second Team. He previously served the Special Teams Coordinator for the Hampden-Sydney football team.

Carlisle was enshrined into the Greenbrier East Sports Hall of Fame in October 2004.
